Stay In Your Own Lane

Excellent! Lots of good knowledge on subject matter - Nick Dicamillo, Certified Master Hypnotherapist, Los Angeles, California

Student mesmerized in hearing Stewart's lecture as deaf interpreter assist

A brief overview of Power-packed Keynotes and Programs

"Stay in Your Own Lane"

Stewart's phenomenal keynote message based on his book "Stay in Your Own Lane," mesmerizes his audiences to the point they want to holler "Hallelujah." An uplifting message that builds character and forces you to drive full speed ahead to reach your goal whether its college, a job or even family desires. A road map is always handy. However, the detours come after the printing of them. Topics covered: 1) The lane of the mind; 2) An accident in your lane; 3) What are you driving? 4) Driving for no reason; 5) Pot holes in your lane; and 5) Put the pedal to the medal.

"BUTT NAKED"

One of the most powerful messages and programs of all time. Using his book "Butt Naked" as a metaphor to strip you of all the useless problems around you that have no value that also causes hindrances. A goal oriented person realizes that all of the layers of bad habits and associations must be stripped in order to reach a goal. Topics include: 1) There's a stranger in your house; 2) Why you can't get butt naked and be free; 3) The Emperor's new clothes; 4) Brain dead but conscious; 5) Suffering to reach a goal; 6) Skeleton's in the closet

"Who in the Hell Is They"

Another uplifting keynote that leaves his audience with the question "Who in the Hell Is They." We often wonder who is the "they" in our life that has prevented us from reaching our goal? One wrong "they" can cost us a college career, a family, a business or the CEO of our own business we had in mind. Topics covered: 1) The "THEY COMMITTEE; 2) Your dream; 3) They and your vision 4) 111 They's; 5) Friends; and 6) Don't Quit

"How to Get Over a Past Relationship Faster than You Think"

Whether a full program or keynote, this message has helped many to realize that they must go on and follow that passion which has always been in their heart. The pain of the severing of a relationship can cause stop signs to go up everywhere and you will not pursue your dream or the career that's has always been meant for you. Topics include:

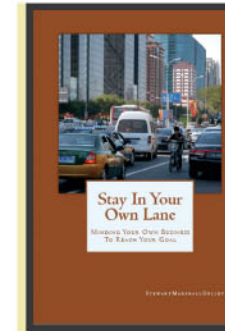

- 1) Letting Go With Magnets; 2) It's too Late to Point the Finger; 3) Sleeping With The Enemy; 4) You Must Enroll; 5) How Long Will It Take; and 6) Uncover the Laughs

*Special books and workshops can be tailored to your college, organization or business

Books by Stewart Marshall Gulley

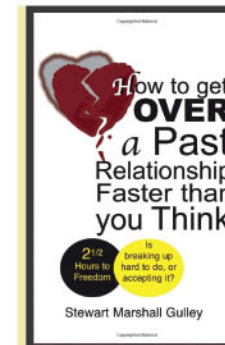

Stay In Your Own Lane is a book of confidence with nuggets of direction and several metaphors. Reading it will heal all of your lost desires and goals and bring them back to your heart knowing that with focus you can accomplish anything. When others tell you "No" and your heart tells you "Yes" know that staying in your own lane will get you to your destination.

Butt Naked This book deals with you stripping off the burdensome cares that a marketing society has imposed on you. The harder you try to overcome in this complex world there are many manipulators that sit back and watch you destroy yourself as you become a creature of habit. You've been conditioned to think you were someone else. Once you have understood what has happened you can make a wise decision without guilt. After reading this book and becoming butt naked it will be a pleasure to dress yourself who you really are!

Who In The Hell Is They One of the most dangerous words used in the English dictionary is called "They." It has caused many people to lose focus on their dream only because of what "they" said. his book This book encourages you to listen to your heart and not to worry about "they," and only listening to wise counsel to pursue your dream.

How To Get Over A Relationship Faster Than You Think

This unique book strengthens the separation of the partner who has difficulties in accepting the severing of a relationship or divorce. We've all had rocks of disappointment thrown at us unexpectedly by being blind to the affair. As the old Chinese proverb says: "Anyone can throw a rock in a well, but it takes a wise man to get it out." This book helps you get the rock out of your well of tears. Students as well as others find it hard to concentrate on their goal because they've allowed an ending relationship to stop them in their tracks. "Not so."

Stewart Marshall Gulley, Motivational Speaker, Author and Playwright is better known as the Renaissance Man of the 21st Century. He is also co-author and best selling author of Wake Up and Live (Finding Your Personal Freedom) along with Dr. Wayne Dyer, Deepak Chopra and Mark Victor Hansen.

Stewart has been the most hidden inspirational speaker around and now he's soaring like an eagle. His many additional talents ranging from a teacher in the public school system, cosmetology instructor, storyteller, artist, real estate agent, insurance agent, auctioneer and cook are only a touch of his many gifts. Finally, allowing himself to let go of all and use the gift within he is better known for his motivating talks and sharing inspiration with the homeless to the wealthy. Surviving from residing in a condemned building to a successful salon which was one of seven, he now only writes and speaks. His collection of over twelve books and plays are only a drop in the bucket of his never ending talents. A phenomenal kid at age 7 he created a voting poll for children in the neighborhood to vote for the 44th President of the U.S which was the Kennedy vs. Nixon era.

Being naturally gifted he wrote and directed plays at age 12 with an outstanding cast that watched him in amazement. Explaining the dark sides of his life he uplifts you as he allows the past to be the past and it only plays as an old movie that's in the archives. Using a combination of street sense, business sense and common sense you are in store for a treat. Many of his fans have said, "You're nothing but a genius and you should have been a comedian." One of his favorite quotes from the over 8,500 he has written is, "Dreams do come true when you work on them." Who is Stewart Marshall Gulley? "If you only knew!
